

CZAR NICHOLAS SIGNS RESCRIPT.

Gives Elected Representatives of People Chance to Express Views On Laws of Empire.

EPOCH IN RUSSIAN HISTORY.

Principle of Autocracy is Not Involved —Emperor Anxious for Welfare Of His Subjects.

St. Petersburg, March 3.—In the Alexander palace at Tsarskoe-Seio, surrounded by the ministers and a few members of the court, and with the empress at his side, Emperor Nicholas this afternoon affixed his signature to a rescript containing his majesty's decree to give elected representatives of the people an opportunity to express their views in the preparation of the laws of the empire.

TEXT OF THE RESCRIPT.

Following is the text of the rescript:
"True to the ancient custom of the Russian people to the throne in days of joy or sorrow for the fatherland, the nobility, zemstvo assemblies, commercial associations and peasant communities congratulations on the birth of the heir to the throne, with expressions of their willingness to sacrifice their fortunes for the successful termination of the war and to devote all their strength to the establishment of order in the state, in my own name and in that of her majesty, I order you to convey to them our hearty thanks for the expression of their loyal feeling, which in the present very grave times, is all the more pleasing as an expression of their willingness, at my call, to co-operate with me, and is entirely in accordance with the wishes of my heart.
"My desire is to attain the fulfillment of my intentions for the welfare of my people by means of the co-operation of the government with experienced forces of the community and, continuing the work of my crown ancestors, to secure the prestige of the Russian nation undiminished and to maintain order therein. I am resolved henceforth, with the help of God, to co-ordinate the worthiest men possessing the confidence of the people and elected by them to participate in the elaboration and consideration of legislative measures.

"Taking into consideration the peculiar circumstances of the fatherland, the multiplicity of its races, and, in certain parts of the country, the weak development of citizenship, Russian rulers in their wisdom instituted reforms in accordance with their mature requirements, but only in logical response, at the same time considering the continuation of firm historical ties with the past as a pledge for the durability and stability of the present.
"In undertaking these reforms I am convinced that local needs and experience of life and well weighed and sincere speech of those elected will ensure fruitfulness to legislation for the real benefit of the people. At the same time I foresee all the complexity and difficulty presented in the elaboration of this form, while preserving absolutely the immutability of the fundamental laws of the empire.

"I have confidence in your long administrative experience and in the your frank assurance in approbation of a special conference to meet under your presidency to consider means to accomplish this my will.
"May God bless this good beginning.
May God help you successfully to secure the welfare of the people confided to me by God.

"NICHOLAS."

AUTOCRACY'S ANSWER.

This is the autocracy's final response to the agitation in favor of participation by the people in government, which has brought Russia in the last few months almost to the brink of revolution. No condition in the regime of

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectively cures, and improves the complexion, clears the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the poisonous gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and are in the form of a lozenge, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon result in a much-improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefit of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and a clear, healthy complexion, and purify the breath, mouth and throat. I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; I have sold twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent medicine, I have got more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

Autocracy is involved for the present, and it means neither a constitution nor a national assembly.

At the same time it recognizes the principle of the people's right to be heard regarding laws under which they must live. Whatever the result may be, the document is sure to mark an epoch in Russian history as important as the signing of the emancipation manifesto, the twenty-fourth anniversary of which it was intended to sig-nalize.

The signing of the document came at a dramatic scene, the climax of which was an impassioned speech by Emperor Nicholas to his ministers, in which he declared that he sought only the welfare of his subjects.
"I am signing," the emperor said, "to show my blood for the good of my people."

From the lips of a high personage who was present when the rescript was signed, the Associated Press is able to give the following authoritative statement:

EMPEROR'S ACTION.

"The action of the emperor today is not a step toward representation, but the actual grant to the people of the means whereby their duly elected representatives can place before his majesty their views of every important measure affecting them, and recommended by the counsel of the empire.
Moreover, if one reads the rescript carefully, one will see that it contains a distinct promise of something in the future. Its small beginning will not involve the surrender of the principle of autocracy now, but what it may evolve in the future only the future can determine.
"We do not expect that it will meet the wishes of radicals and extremists of any class, nothing will satisfy them but the complete overthrow of the existing regime. We do hope, however, that after mature deliberation it will meet with the approval of moderate men who are sincere well-wishers of the country.

NICHOLAS MALIGNED.

The emperor has been much maligned and misunderstood abroad. Nobody appreciates the trials and suffering he has endured the last few months. He has been represented as indifferent to the conditions of his people. Nothing could be further from the truth. Not only the welfare of the people, but the greatness of Russia, is his sole care.
For him the two are indissolubly linked. For this reason he refuses to surrender the autocratic power in favor of a constitutional regime. Why?
Because he is convinced, as he virtually says in so many words in the rescript, that the people are not prepared for popular government, that the heterogeneous elements of the population—Poles, Finns, Tartars, Armenians, Mongols and other races—are

SMITH'S FLOUR.

only held together by the autocracy, whose end would mean the fall of Russia as a great state. But the emperor recognizes the strength of the outcry against the bureaucracy, as manifested by addresses and memorials voted by all classes of society, and has yielded to their demand. The people's representatives can make known directly to him their views concerning every law which the council of the empire proposes.

MANIFESTO AND RESCRIPT.

"The manifesto and the rescript must be read together. To Americans the former doubtless will appear as a strange mediaeval document; but it must be remembered that it is the emperor's word to his people in every condition of life, scattered from the White sea to the Black sea, and from the frontiers of Germany to the Pacific. It will be read in every church, in every hamlet of the empire. It is a personal appeal to the people to support the government in its hour of trial, and should be read in that light.
The rescript, on the other hand, is addressed to the ministers of the interior.
Under the Russian law, only nobles have the right to address memorials to his majesty in person. All other classes must communicate through the ministers of the interior. The rescript, therefore, must be regarded as his majesty's reply to the vast number of addresses adopted by zemstvos, municipalities, educational, commercial and professional associations, and even communes."

Proceeding, the personage above quoted, who probably himself will be one of those entrusted with the elaboration of the reform scheme, explained that the details all remained to be worked out; but in a general way he revealed the important fact that it is not the intention of the emperor to have representatives of the different classes sit together to deliberate on the laws, but that the representatives of each class will be constituted into a permanent body elected at stated periods. The jurisdiction of each body will be limited to the expression of views on the particular legislation affecting such class. Moreover, the sitting of the different as-semblies may be held at different times.
These representatives in no sense will constitute an assembly to formulate or discuss laws, avoiding thereby the danger from convocation of a general representative assembly, which, like the states general of France, might take the reins in its own hands and transform itself into a national assembly.

The humor in which the rescript will be received is awaited with the keenest anxiety. Extremists are expected to denounce the government for granting a middle course, yielding something in the form of popular government while retaining the essence of autocracy; but the government does not hope to satisfy this class. It rallies the moderates to the support of the government. It will be satisfied.

The workmen left their meetings in St. Petersburg this afternoon threatening to renew a general strike. Tonight the streets are again full of Cossacks, and every preparation and precaution has been taken in anticipation of possible trouble tomorrow.

Extra editions of the Official Messenger, containing the imperial manifesto and rescript, have been distributed in all the industrial quarters this evening, and the documents will be posted at every street corner throughout the country tomorrow.

The Associated Press is officially informed that the refusal of the workmen's ultimatum, demanding the release of their fellow arrested since Jan.
22 and free publication of the proceedings of the conciliation commission, was because the government refused that the forces behind the workmen were political agitators. The freeing of those arrested would simply reinforce the workmen, and the open meetings would be held not to adjust the labor question, but to make revolutionary speeches for dissemination through the press.

Fighting the Oil Trusts.

Topeka, Kas., March 3.—Dispositions will be taken next Tuesday in the attorney general's office to be used in the case brought in the courts against the Santa Fe and the Standard Oil company. Testimony will be taken Thursday at Independence. The witnesses there will be oil producers and shippers.

An effort will be made to show the alleged illegal agreements which have been made between the railroad traffic and the Standard Oil company.

Papers are being prepared for a suit which will soon be filed against the Prairie Oil & Gas company, the subsidiary company of the Standard Oil company, which handles the pipe line business of the Standard Oil company in Kansas.

The suit will be brought for the purpose of compelling the Prairie Oil & Gas company to abide by the laws of the state, and also to bring out the CAUSE OF DEATH OF MRS. STANFORD

Cablegram from Honolulu Intimates that It May Have Been Acute Indigestion.

NO ARRESTS HAVE BEEN MADE.

Miss Berner Denies That She Ever Suspected Ah Wing, the Chinese Cook.

San Francisco, March 3.—Although every effort is being made to solve the mystery of the alleged poisoning of Mrs. Jane L. Stanford in Honolulu, there were few developments in the case today. The autopsy in Honolulu has not been completed, and it has not been proven that death did not result from natural causes. A cablegram from Honolulu intimates that an acute attack of indigestion may have caused the fatal illness of Mrs. Stanford, who, before dying, recalled the previous stories of an attempt on her life, and exclaimed that she had been poisoned.

As yet no arrests have been made, and the detectives engaged in investigating the matter have made no direct accusations, though the various members of the Stanford household are understood to be closely watched.

With reference to those suspected by the authorities, Capt. Callaghan of the Morse detective agency said today:
"At the present moment we have positively no proof that would hold any one for the poisoning of Mrs. Stanford. We do not suspect Ah Wing, the Chinese cook, and he is not under greater surveillance than the others in the Stanford mansion today.

"We cannot take any action until the report of the autopsy reaches us from Honolulu."
It has been learned that W. E. Jackson, head pharmacist of the Stanford pharmacy in Palo Alto, sold Mrs. Stanford a package of bicarbonate of soda on the 6th of February. Mrs. Stanford and her secretary, Miss Berner, had just returned from the Hotel Vendome at San Jose, and came directly from the train to the drug store. They were helped from their carriage and entered the store, where they purchased several drugs and toilet articles, among them being 10 cents' worth of bicarbonate of soda. The package was wrapped up, labeled and given to Miss Berner with the understanding that she was to place the remainder of the bottle of bi-carbonate of soda, from which the package was sold, in the keeping of his attorney, Walter Rogers, and refuses to be interviewed.

The report of the San Francisco chemist who analyzed the mineral water of which Mrs. Stanford drank on the 14, made public today, declares that there was strychnine in the water submitted to him for examination.
President Jordan of the Leland Stanford, Jr., university, in company with the father and friends of Mrs. Stanford, was reluctant to believe that she was poisoned.

Dr. Jordan and Himothy Hopkins, of San Francisco, who is one of the trustees of the university, will leave tomorrow on the steamer Alameda for Honolulu to take charge of Mrs. Stanford's body and investigate her death. They will return with the body on the steamer China.

NEVER SUSPECTED AH WING.

Honolulu, March 3.—Miss Berner Barner, who was Mrs. Stanford's secretary, and the daughter of the Associated Press today that there was absolutely no truth in the dispatch from this city published in San Francisco, claiming that she suspected Ah Wing, a cook employed for many years at Mrs.
Stanford's mansion in San Francisco, of having placed the strychnine in the bottle of bicarbonate of soda, a dose of which Mrs. Stanford took before her death.

Miss Berner says she has made no statement whatever except that made to the correspondent of the Associated Press and sent in these dispatches Wednesday. She says that, acting on the advice of the police authorities and her attorney, she will not make any further statement.

High Sheriff Henry says he is quite positive Miss Berner never made such a statement, and adds that he has had several prolonged conversations with her.

Stanford University, Cal., March 3.— President Jordan of the Stanford university still has hope that Mrs. Stanford met her death by accident, and not by wilful poisoning. He asserted today that he had absolutely no theory as to why she suspected Ah Wing, a killing Mrs. Stanford, and that he did not believe that any of the servants would do the deed.

"The poisoned drug must have come from the same bottle that poisoned the mineral water in San Francisco in January. I do not believe that the murderer, if there is one, followed Mrs.
Stanford to Honolulu. When the will is made public the motive may be revealed, but at present I have no theory."

CATARRH WORSE THAN SMALLPOX.

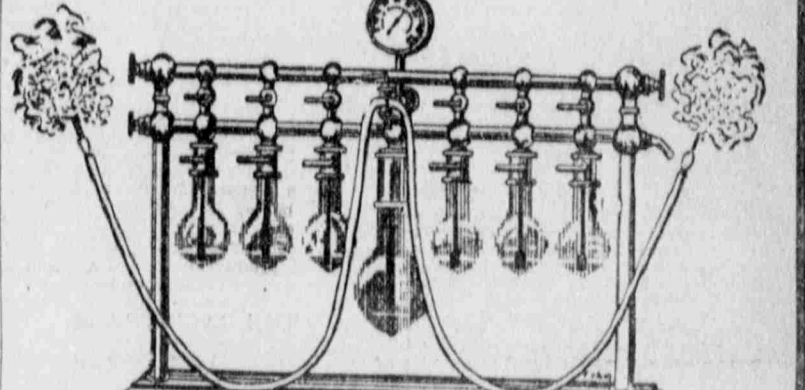

It may be safely stated that CATARRH is more to be dreaded in a community than Smallpox, because the people are so apt to treat it lightly until it has spread and thousands of innocents become its victims, resulting in defective eyesight, deafness, nervousness, loss of hair, imperfect teeth in children, and many still worse symptoms in older people.

YOU CANNOT BE TOO CAREFUL

nor guard too well this insidious monster that "comes like a thief in the night" and before you realize it, is sap-ing the life blood of the loved ones. IF YOU APPLY AT ONCE, DRS. SHORES WILL CURE YOU FOR THE LOW FEE OF $3 A MONTH, ALL MEDICINES FREE.

CATARRH

When a known contagious disease makes its appearance in a community it is wise to promptly enforce the strictest sanitary regulations, and, by confining it to one place, the doctor is able to check it and quickly stamp it out, but when Catarrh makes its appearance in a family the family physician may ignorantly or maliciously advise that it is not a serious matter—"a slight cold," and the like, and there is no danger of complications of infection, and consequently the people are misled into allowing a little thing to grow and, being off their guard, we soon have thousands of infected people and the disease runs on unchecked until the whole system is a mass of corruption and poison. Thus, like a tiny hole in a dam, the germ starts, little and insignificant at first, but gradually growing and gaining in volume until it bursts upon the startled victim like a torrent, and the mischief is done. Beware of little things and the big things will take care of themselves. If you have catarrh—no matter how slightly—GET CURED NOW—DON'T ALLOW IT TO RUN ON AND RUN YOUR HEALTH—IT
DON'T TAKE LONG FOR COM-PLICATIONS TO ARISE.

"IT SOOTHES," "IT CURES," "IT HEALS."

These are the expressions heard many times a day in Drs. Shores' palors from people who have tested other treatment without benefit and find in Drs. Shores' new treatment instant relief from Catarrh, Deafness, Asthma and Lung Diseases. The patient drinks into the air passages these healing nostril, soothing oils, reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the nose, throat, catarrhal tubes and lungs, like healing salve on a sore. No outing, no cauterizing, no probing with dirty instruments; but by Drs. Shores' DIRECT CONTACT METHOD with Drs. Shores' modern instruments, the medicated oils reach the sore spots and heal, and carried into the eustachian canals, the LOST HEARING IS RESTORED TO THE DEAF. The sufferers from lung diseases breathe into their lungs these SOOTHING OILS, and the soreness disappears, and in many so-called hopeless cases A CURE BE-GINS. The spasms of Asthma are RELIEVED IN ONE TREATMENT. All made possible with Drs. Shores' new and wonderful instrument for this class of ailments.

$3 A MONTH BY MAIL.

Stick people who live out of the city should write Drs. Shores for their new symptom blank and take advantage of this grand offer and be cured for $3 a month. Write if you cannot call, and take advantage of the special offer. Consultation free for any disease.

Contracted Disorders.	What "Weakness" Is and How We Cure It.	VARICOCELE.
Be sure your cure is thorough. Not one of our patients has ever had a relapse after being discharged as cured and we cure in less time than the drug, or any other forms of treatment require.	So-called "Weakness" in men is merely a symptom of chronic inflammation in the prostate gland, brought on by early dis- solution or by the improper treatment of some contracted disease. A complete and radical cure is, therefore, a question of restoring the prostate gland to its normal state, and this we accomplish promptly and com- pletely without the use of in- ternal remedies. Our treatment is a local one entirely. It is original and scientific, and has been proven absolutely effective by the hundreds of tests. We are convinced that by no other methods can full and permanent restoration of strength and vigor be accomplished.	Absolutely painless. It is not a cure, it is a method. We investigate our method. It is the only thoroughly scientific treatment for this disease being employed.

Spermatozoa, Stricture, Piles, Skin and Kidney Diseases. Lost strength, Hydro- cele, Organic Weak- ness, etc., are also among the diseases we cure to stay cured.

Drank Carbolic Acid.

San Francisco, March 3.—Matthew Cullinan, aged about 28 years, is at the Central Emergency hospital suffering from the effects of carbolic acid, taken with suicidal intent. Tired, as he says, of evading the police who, it is stated, wanted him for a burglary alleged to have been committed in Portland, Ore., rendered himself to Police Officer Cam-

While waiting for the police wagon he pulled from his pocket a vial of carbolic acid and before Cameron could wrest the bottle from his hand had swallowed a part of the drug.

Four months ago, according to the facts learned by the police, Cullinan and an ex-convict named McCarthy, were accused of committing a robbery in Portland, looting a lot of sealskins and other furs from a store. A fight with the police followed and both of the robbers escaped.
McCarthy is well known to the police.
Several years ago he laid elaborate
